

van gogh yellow

BY FINE PAINTS OF EUROPE

"The graphic floor tiles in this master bathroom inspired the yolky yellow of this painted vanity. I love how the color emphasizes the curved bottom edges and the legs. It's more livable than you'd think—I've used this shade on everything from ceiling beams to a peg board in my kitchen."

—Barbara Bestor, Bestor Architecture, Los Angeles, CA

yellow fun fact!

Some yellow things don't get much love: It's the least-popular car color worldwide and the worst-selling iPhone color in history.

pineapple delight

BY PITTSBURGH PAINTS

"This breakfast room off my kitchen has a low ceiling. To give it a sunny, open look, I painted the walls this watered-down yellow-green. One client loved it so much she asked me to paint her kitchen the same color."

—Amie Corley, Amie Corley Interiors, St. Louis, MO

yellow finch

BY BENJAMIN MOORE

"Yellow walls are tricky. The color intensifies once it hits the walls, and it can be too high-energy for a bedroom.

But this couple didn't want subtle. To pull it off, I balanced the yellow's zestiness with strong blues and corals.

A bright green could also hold its own with this yellow."
